

Given the abundance of real issues facing our country, I feel that time could be much better spent addressing areas of national importance instead of attempting to protect special interest groups, Given the sponsorship by the representative from Texas, one could only derive that the hand of Clear Channel is pulling the string on this one. I strongly oppose this bill. Thank you for your consideration of my comments.